HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

The Arbitration and ADR commission is a unique think tank and rule-making body for ICC Dispute Resolution Services. In its research capacity, the commission proposes new policies and tools by producing reports, guidelines or best practices to innovate and promote efficient and cost-effective dispute resolution in view of current developments. Together with the ICC Court and the ICC Centre for ADR it also drafts and revises the ICC's range of rules for dispute resolution, including the ICC Rules of Arbitration and the ICC Mediation Rules.
